2114 -

The West Virginia Board of Education has established a comprehensive system of measurements that defines school-specific expectations for continuous improvement using academic achievement, academic progress, cohort graduation rates, progress toward English language proficiency (ELP), and student success (attendance, behavior, and college/career credit earning) indicators to guide and focus improvement and technical assistance. The West Virginia Accountability System meets all ~~the~~ requirements of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESSA) of 2015.

Through the West Virginia Accountability System [WVAS], schools earn performance level designations for each individual indicator measure identified above. The WVBE shall establish cut scores for the school performance level designations for each indicator. School performance lev
